Lengthy Leonard, the long dog, gives a crew of mice quite an aerial ride after they have inflated him. When a bird peppers him with pepper, Leonard sneezes, deflates and falls to the ground where Helen Hippo uses him for a skip-rope.

Old Al Falfa is painting the flag-pole when a bird comes along, sets on the ball and hatches it. Al slides down the pole into a can of paint, and climbs up. Leonard who, meanwhile has stood on his hind legs near the pole.

Al, after being chased by and chasing the animals, runs over the hill when his house collapses.
